T. Veitch, C. C. Palmer, G. C. Cox, A. H. Mancell, W. D. Sutton, W. E. Clement, A. P. Nobbs, and J. A. Jupp (Secretary.)

The Chairman said -Gentlemen, the ro-sult of the year's working will, we hope, be considered satisfactory, especially when you remember what a disastrous year 1892 has been to many large holders of property in this Colony. All your houses are let at fair rents to good tenants. Your rent roll is steadily increasing by the slow development of your Estates as houses are in demand in their vicinity. The improvement in the Richmond Estate is very marked. lic and private road planted with avenues of camphor and other ornamental trees. Its numerous building sites are surrounded by beautiful scenery. The drainage of the neighbourhood is entirely new, and both in respect of the subsoil and sewage is perfeet, with the result fore old by Mr Chadwick that it would, when all this work was completed, be the most healthy residential locality in the Colony. During this season your Kowloon Estate will be filled in to the level of the public roads now in course of construction and the respective Inland Lots prepared for building purposes. At no distant period we look forward to this land becoming in strong demand for commercial and manufacturing purposes, it will then be very valuable. In the meantime and for many years past it has not been apreciated in your books by the addition of interest. All crown rents have been written off to Profit and Loss. The Estate is a large one and the amount thus written off represents a considerable sum of money. All invostments likely to be depreciated in value were cleared off in the early part of last year and the account closed. We procapital of the Company from time to time

SCANDALS IN LONDON. cates personally at his own expense. For ation. instance, if you are swindled in England you cannot place the facts in the hand of a district attorney and a grand jury with no further responsibility on your part, except to appear and give evidence. You must conduct the entire prosecution at your own expense, and if the thief is sent to jail 40,000,00 instead of being condemned to pay a fine and costs, then you must pay the whole costs of court in addition.

Simple justice is so expensive in this enlightened country that a majority of the 884,385.37 208,000.00 crimes against individuals go unpunished which is undeserved.

The whole town is talking of the manner in which Sir William Pearce, the young member of Parliament for Plymouth, almost escaped exposure as co-respondent in a case which was quietly slipped through after the usual hour of adjournment. Everybody concerned is making strendous denials of any plot to shield him. The Judge, who was hoodwinked, and the papers, which failed to get the news, are investigating, and there are hints of exposure of other cases of concealment of the real identity of prominent victims in divorce court proceedings.

The most interesting feature of Sir William's case is the striking discrimination in the code of morals which is being made in his behalf. The injured husband, his lawyer and friends appear in letters to the newspapers as earnest defenders of the young Baronet and M. P. It was testified in court and is not denied that Sir William respondent, Mrs Brigstocke, in 1834, and that these relations continued until recent. ly. Pearce was in 1884 on undergraduate of Cambridge, 22 years old. It is said in his bobalf that he did not then know that Mrs Brigstocke was a married woman. These being the facts the wronged hus-

of his happiness in a letter, in which he says: "I quite admit that notwithstanding Pearce's conduct there is no imputation against his honor.

The father of Brigstocke also writes a lotter, setting forth the same facts and concluding: Sir William Pearce's conduct did not reflect on his honor."

The Westminster Gazette, which first brought the case to light, naturally inquires : Is the procedure and law of divorce really such that a decree nisi, with costs, can be given without leaving any imputation on the honor of the co-res-
